BACKGROUND

Bryan was born and raised in Channahon, IL. He moved to Edwardsville, IL in 2007 to obtain his undergraduate degree at Southern Illinois University Edwardsville. He later moved to Tennessee to obtain a master's degree from The University of Tennessee. Bryan currently lives in Rutledge and enjoys spending his free time walking his dogs, playing disc golf, and spending time with friends and family.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Bryan is the Traffic Design Manager for Region 1 of the Tennessee Department of Transportation. Bryan has been with the Department for 11 years, all of which were spent in Traffic Engineering. He is currently building and training a team to perform traffic design tasks including traffic signal and sign design. Additional duties include reviewing traffic control plans and aiding in planning and conceptual efforts on various projects. While in Traffic Operations, his work included sign and pavement marking design and maintenance; commercial access review and permitting; and traffic studies including, traffic signal warrant analysis, sight distance studies, crash and safety analysis, and speed studies. He has also taken on various roles at the Department including GTA Coordinator/Advisory Board member where he worked with new engineers and recent college graduates to help their transition into the workforce. In this capacity, he helped organize trainings with a focus on both technical skills and professional development.
